P.C.:

1. We have examined the Petition and heard the learned APP. The learned APP informs that no complaint has been received from the wife of the accused, who is in judicial custody as regards the implicating the petitioner in false cases and relating to threat and encounter and that the State does not indulge in such encounter as alleged in the Petition and that the petition is totally misconceived. The ld. APP also informs that the petitioner is on bail. Therefore, we find that there is no merits in the contention of the Petition, therefore petition stands dismissed.
